

Student's Final Project TODO

Sabrina Baez edited this page 27 days ago · 6 revisions

Week 12 (Last week of 3rd Module)

Your teacher will explain how Final Projects work. Your tasks are:

- ☐ Read the documentation in this document
- ☐ Decide if you'll do your Final Project during this month
- ☐ Decide if you want to work in a group or solo.
- ☐ Send your coach the following information:
 - Team Name
 - Team Motto
 - Team Members (even if it's just yourself)

👉 This final point is IMPORTANT! Do it ASAP. It DOES NOT matter if you work solo or in groups. You MUST submit team name, motto and participants

Starts month of Final Project

Week 1

You'll meet with your teacher at the day of the first class of the week (either Monday or Tuesday). During this presentation, you MUST:

- ☐ Communicate who is in your group
- ☐ Receive project scope and understand technically

▼ Pages 7

Home

Career Support

Final Project Introduction and details

Final Project RMOTR Proposed Projects

Final Project Blog

Final Projects Description and overview

Student's Final Project TODO

Clone this wiki locally

<https://github.com/rmotr/>

your project

By Thursday:

- ☐ Create project in RMOTR's Platform
- ☐ Create Github repository (even if empty for now) and attach it to the project on RMOTR's platform

Week 2

On Thursday:

- ☐ Push all your changes and wait for feedback

Week 3

Beginning of the week:

- ☐ Sign up for a free account on Medium.com using this link
- ☐ Start drafting your Blog on the Medium platform. Do not publish until you have shared with your Project Coordinator first. Here is a link to help you get started writing your blog.

On Thursday:

- ☐ Push all your changes and wait for feedback

Important: This is the last week to add features or additions. The next week will be all about fixing, polishing and documenting your project.

Week 4

Beginning of the week:

- ☐ Get final review of your blog by project coordinator

On Thursday:

☐ Publish your Project Blog!